WHY THESE CASES ARE IMPORTANT TO ME

Vulnerable Adult Abuse

- What is it?
- How many people are affected by it?
- What does it look like?
- What should you do if you think you see it?

Many Forms of VA

Types of Vulnerable Adult Abuse

Some Numbers

- In Arizona, by 2020, 1 in 4 Arizonans will be over the age of 65
- 65% of the Nation's Wealth is owned by seniors over the age of 65
- Almost 50% of those over the age of 85 will suffer from some form of dementia
- Financial Exploitation of the Elderly is the 2nd most common crime in the US

2-5 MILLION OLDER AMERICANS
EXPERIENCED ABUSE OVER ONE YEAR,
AND MANY EXPERIENCED IT IN MULTIPLE FORMS.

Incidence of Vulnerable Adult Abuse

FOR EVERY REPORT OF ABUSE

23.5 CASES GO UNREPORTED

Physical Abuse

- Beating
- Shaking
- Kicking
- Throwing objects
- Force feeding
- Pinching
- Burning
- Choking
- Unreasonable restraint
- Misuse of medications
- Assault with a deadly weapon

Signs & Symptoms: Physical Abuse

- Reports of being hit, slapped, kicked, or assaulted
- Bruises, black eyes, welts, lacerations, and rope marks
- Broken eyeglasses/frames
- Bone fractures, broken bones (hips and pelvis), and skull fractures
- Open wounds, cuts, punctures, burns, and other injuries in various stages of healing

Bruising Study

- 2002 study by Irving College of Medicine
- 101 people over 65 and older – avg 85
- Examined head to toe for 2 weeks
- 90% of bruises were on extremities
- NOT 1 accidental bruise on neck, ears, genitals, buttocks or soles of feet
- Most common color 1st day – Red/Purple
- Some new bruises were yellow....

Senile Purpura vs. Bruise

The skin develops a purplish or reddish brown appearance due to bleeding of small blood vessels underneath.

Deliberate Bruising - Study

- Orange County APS helped researchers
- 67 people 65 and older – confirmed abuse
- Significantly larger bruises- 2 inches +
- 91% knew what caused the bruise, compared to non-abused group, only 28.6% knew the cause
- Bruises on head, neck, face, ears, feet and back torso
- Noted significant bruising on right arm

Indicators of Neglect

- Multiple/severe bruises/Black Eyes
- Restrained, tied to bed
- Poor hygiene/Soiled clothes & Bedding
- Broken Glasses/frames
- Poor Skin Condition
- Untreated Injuries
- Burns
- Dehydration
- Overmedicating
- Bed Sores
- Rapid Weight loss without illness

Financial Exploitation

- Exploitation of property, resources, and assets
 - Denying access
 - Stealing, hiding
 - Purposeful mismanagement, deception
 - Fraud, extortion, forging
 - Improper use of legal document
 - Identity theft

A.R.S. §13-3623 - Child or Vulnerable Adult Abuse

- “Vulnerable Adult” means an individual 18 years of age or older and who is unable to protect him/herself from abuse, neglect or exploitation by others because of a mental or physical impairment.
